

International Finishing Trades Institute (iFTI)

FTI 1017 IUPAT History/Structure and Digital Literacy

Course Information

Course Hours: 24

Course Description: This course provides an introduction to common software applications used by District Council staff and leaders. Participants will also learn about important milestones and achievements made by workers that have shaped the modern labor movement in both the United States and Canada.

Course Objectives:

- Review IUPAT history to establish context for our organizational structure and positioning.
- Connect historical worker struggles to the modern role and impact of unions.
- Use Microsoft office applications including Powerpoint, Excel, and Word.

Prerequisite/s: None

Jason's
Pic

Instructor

Course Lead: Jason Crowson

Resume Link: https://ifti.org/emd_person/jason-crowson/

Policies and Procedures

COE Accreditation

The International Finishing Trades Institute (iFTI) is accredited by the Commission of the Council on Occupational Education (COE) and is entitled to the recognition and associated privileges of this designation. Accreditation is a status granted to an educational institution or program that has been found to meet or exceed stated criteria of educational quality and student achievement. Accreditation by COE is viewed as a nationally-honored seal of excellence for occupational education institutions and denotes honesty and integrity.

iFTI Course Catalog

For a complete list of iFTI course offerings, please refer to the iFTI Course Catalog.

Diversity Statement

The iFTI champions diversity in the workplace and committed in building an inclusive culture. We believe that every person, regardless of attributes such as race, gender or sexual orientation, has an equal opportunity to find employment based on merit or while in training or the workplace. Although our union is more diverse than ever, we still have so much work to do.

Policies and Procedures

The campus policies and procedures are found in the Student Handbook.

Dress Code

The dress code for iFTI classes in Hanover, Maryland is casual. Clothing should be neat, clean, and well-kept. Please no shorts, flip flops, sleeveless shirts, worn tennis shoes, sweatpants, sweatshirts, jeans with holes, rips, tears or any clothing that contains inappropriate language or that could be offensive. If you will be delivering a presentation / teach back, please dress in a professional manner.

Please call the iFTI at 410.564.5850 with any questions or concerns.