

International Finishing Trades Institute (iFTI)

FTI 1145 PCB Awareness TTT

Course Information

Course Hours: 8

Course Description: This 8-hour PCB awareness course will focus on the group of toxic chemicals called Polychlorinated Biphenyls (PCB) and what they mean for IUPAT member's health as well as what role they play in painting and allied trades work. The course will touch on what PCBs are and how they harm workers, workers families, the public and the Environment. Course time will also be dedicated to reviewing how prevalent PCB containing building materials are in relation to IUPAT work and what the regulatory and training requirements are for conducting renovation/repair work and abatement operations on buildings and structures that may contain these harmful materials.

Course Objectives:

- Define PCBs.
- List five sources of PCBs that you may encounter at your job site.
- List three health effects of PCB exposure.
- Describe the testing requirements for PCBs under EPA.
- State the OSHA PEL for PCBs ☐ Describe worker exposure testing for PCBs.
- Describe PCB hazard controls related to worker job specific health risks.

Prerequisite/s: None

Instructor

Course Lead: Bernard Mizula

Resume Link: <https://iftilms.org/faculty/bernard-mizula/>

Policies and Procedures

COE Accreditation

The International Finishing Trades Institute (iFTI) is accredited by the Commission of the Council on Occupational Education (COE) and is entitled to the recognition and associated privileges of this designation. Accreditation is a status granted to an educational institution or program that has been found to meet or exceed stated criteria of educational quality and student achievement. Accreditation by COE is viewed as a nationally-honored seal of excellence for occupational education institutions and denotes honesty and integrity.

iFTI Course Catalog

For a complete list of iFTI course offerings, please refer to the iFTI Course Catalog.

Diversity Statement

The iFTI champions diversity in the workplace and committed in building an inclusive culture. We believe that every person, regardless of attributes such as race, gender or sexual orientation, has an equal opportunity to find employment based on merit or while in training or the workplace. Although our union is more diverse than ever, we still have so much work to do.

Policies and Procedures

The campus policies and procedures are found in the Student Handbook.

Travel and Lodging Reservations

Upon the receipt of the final class registration confirmation and course schedule, you will be advised to call Metropolitan Travel Service to obtain the best coach fare ticket. No air travel costs will be reimbursed if not made through Metropolitan Travel.

If you will be driving to the event, send your anticipated arrival and departure dates and times, so appropriate hotel reservations can be made. Hotel reservations will be made on your behalf after the iFTI receives your final travel itinerary.

Travel and lodging reservations will be direct billed to the iFTI. If regionally appropriate for you to drive your vehicle, the iFTI will reimburse mileage at $.30/mile (not to exceed the lowest 30-day advance airfare, or the shortest route as determined by Google Maps). iFTI is not financially responsible for any costs associated with travel, lodging, meals or incidentals for accompanying guest(s).

In the event you must cancel, the iFTI and Metropolitan Travel Service must be notified within 7 days of the travel date or the District Council/Local Union will be responsible for any cancellation fees.

Dress Code

The dress code for iFTI classes in Hanover, Maryland is casual. Clothing should be neat, clean, and well-kept. Please no shorts, flip flops, sleeveless shirts, worn tennis shoes, sweatpants, sweatshirts, jeans with holes, rips, tears or any clothing that contains inappropriate language or that could be offensive. If you will be delivering a presentation / teach back, please dress in a professional manner.

Please call the iFTI at 410.564.5850 with any questions or concerns.